DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-15 are allowed.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Aaron Deditch on 11/13/07.

The application has been amended as follows:

13. (Currently Amended) A method of preventing a pirated copy of a computer program, comprising:

determining whether a dongle is connected to a computer;

checking whether the dongle contains a correct computer identifier when the dongle is connected to the computer;

copying a key to the dongle when the dongle contains the correct computer identifier, the key uniquely identifying a licensed copy of the computer program;

erasing the key in the computer from a first memory element of the computer if a transfer of the key to the dongle is successful so that a subsequent attempt to transfer the key to another computer does not result in a transfer of the key to the another computer unless the key has been transferred back to the computer from the dongle which received the key;

erasing the computer identifier in the dongle; and preventing an execution of the computer program on the computer if the key is erased on the computer.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The closest prior art of record discloses method for preventing software piracy by comparing identification information of computer stored onto a removable memory. However, the prior art of record does not explicitly disclose the device is configured to erase the key from the first memory element upon a successful transfer of the data file so that a subsequent attempt to transfer the data file to another computer does not result in a transfer of the key to the other computer unless the key has been transferred back to the device from the computer which received the key in light of other features disclosed in independent claims 1, 5, 8 and 13.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
